First and foremost, I want to share my disdain for writing tasting notes. Read the back label of the 'Old School' Syrah & you will see my general opinion on how tasting notes are written. What I taste, is not what you taste. All you really need is, do I like the wine, yes or no. It's really that simple. Having said that, here is what I smell & taste in this wine.

The Wine:

Aromas & Visuals: Plum, strawberry, rosemary, sage, huckleberry, prosciutto, sweet floral notes, roasted nutty aromas, butter pretzels.

Flavors & Mouthfeel: Fuji apple, bright and fresh, pomegranite, red current, cranberry, blackberry, savory, peppery, unbuttered popcorn kernals.
